

RODNEY COLLEGE

WAYS WE ARE WORKING TOGETHER WHILE LEARNING FROM HOME

STUDENTS

- Complete the Student Wellness Survey every day between 8.30-11.30am
- At the start of the week read your timetable and make a plan for when you will complete your schoolwork each day.
- Check your Google Classrooms regularly and complete work that is set for you. Don't let yourself get behind.
- Use the Google Classroom comment box, email or the comment function on doc to ask for help. Communicate with teachers, they're here to help.
- Check your school email regularly and read and action any messages and updates.
- Our Guidance Counsellor, Mr Byars is available online. So too are your Deans and DP, so feel free to contact them directly if you are feeling overwhelmed.

AC TEACHERS

- Your AC teacher will keep track of your engagement using the Student Wellness Survey responses. They will follow up this survey with a regular weekly 'Check in' with you.
- Their check-ins could be via phone, online meetings or email.
- Your AC teacher may refer learning or wellness concerns to your Dean/ SENCO/Guidance Counsellor/Nurse.

TEACHERS

- Teachers will be putting work on Google Classroom and communicating with you via email and Google Meet. Teachers aim to hold one online lesson with you once a week. Teachers will check timetables so you are ready for learning.
- Teachers will keep track of your work completion and give you some feedback.
- Teachers will send general messages and updates via email
- Teachers will find ways to support your learning and wellbeing during lockdown

WHANAU

- At the start of the week discuss your child's plan of learning and check that their schedule for their learning fits in with you and your whanau.
- Encourage your child to complete the daily Student Wellness Survey and log onto their Google classroom
- Check emails from teachers and discuss with your child.
- Get in touch with your AC teacher, Dean or subject teacher if you have any concerns.
